

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF GREEK AND LATIN EPIGRAPHY

Membership Information

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF GREEK AND LATIN EPIGRAPHY (ASGLE), founded in 1996, is an organization whose purpose is to further research in, and the teaching of, Greek and Latin epigraphy in North America. The Society fosters collaboration in the field and facilitates the exchange of scholarly research and discussion, both in the public forum and in published form. It sponsors a thematic panel each year at the meetings of the Society of Classical Studies (formerly the American Philological Association) and an international congress every five years.

Membership in ASGLE is open to all person interested in the study and promotion of Greek and Latin epigraphy and related disciplines. Full membership, for college and university faculty in North America, includes membership in L'Association Internationale pour l'Épigraphie Grecque et Latine (AIEGL). A reduced-rate membership does not include membership in AIEGL and is available for students, independent scholars, retired faculty, and foreign scholars who are already members of AIEGL. Lifetime memberships are also available. Please see the table below for a schedule of fees.

Individuals may join the Society by completing and detaching the form below and sending it, with payment, to the Secretary-Treasurer at the address listed. Checks should be made payable to ASGLE in US dollars and drawn on a US bank. Dues may also be paid online via Donorbox the Society's website at <http://www.asgle.org/>.
